

DECLARATION OF COMMITMENT TO HUMAN TRAFFICKING & PROTECTION OF MINORS

AMSTERDAM MANOR BEACH RESORT ARUBA

Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort is aware of the fact that the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of minors throughout the world is a problem which affects the Tourism Industry. We express our intention to abide by the Code of Conduct for the Protection of Boys, Girls and Teenagers regarding Sexual Exploitation in the Travel and Tourism, we will commit to the following:

1. To train staff in recognizing Human trafficking and exploitation of minors.
2. To provide information to guests and any third parties by means of informative material and via our website.
3. To provide information to the "Landelijk coordinator Mensenhandel en Zeden Politie". If any suspicious activity is being observed on the premises.
4. To commit on the implementation of these points.

The company hereby agrees to the implementation of actions and good practices intended to eradicate the problem, incorporating the following promises into its Social Responsibility policies:

- To promote Human Rights, and Children's Rights.
- To reject, eradicate and condemn any form of exploitation of human beings, especially of a sexual nature, particularly when this affects minors.
- To adopt preventive measures to prevent the development or circulation of tourist programs which promote or encourage any sexual involvement with minors.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "Alfred Kaufmann", written over a horizontal line.

Alfred Kaufmann, General Manager

24th February 2021